What do you want from me?
What do you want me to be?
What do you want from me?
What do you want me to be?

How she cries when she reads my words
And how she's sad when she hears my songs
She wants me to be happy
But she doesn't know where I belong

So I'll sing what I know

Mama please don't cry for me
There's nothing that you can do no more
I made my life what's it's become
I've opened windows and I've closed doors

So I'll sing what I know

If I had three words to express my self to you;
I can't lie
Although you and dad are pretty good at that
I'll never lie to myself

So I'll just sing what I know
I'll just sing what I know
All I know
